Part 2—WOMEN OF THE NEW TESTAMENT

Revised and expanded by Beth Johnson
Dedicated to all women who study to show themselves approved unto God—1 Tim. 2:15

“Grace is deceitful, and beauty is vain; But a woman that feareth Jehovah, she shall be praised. Give her of the fruit of her hands; And let her works praise her in the gates” (Prov. 31:30, 31).
JUST A WORD PLEASE!

This fourth edition of Bible Women is marked by many radical changes from the first three in the series. These changes will be noted:

1) All characters studied are placed under the Period of Bible History, to which they belong. Every lesson displays these headings: The Period of History, the time of it, the scriptures covered by it, and the Dispensation of Time. In the New Testament, the Periods of Life of Christ, and the Divisions of Acts are followed with the same consistency. At a glance, the teacher and student may recognize the Period of Bible History and the characters who lived at that time.

2) A chart featuring these divisions is included in the book.

3) With rare exceptions, all characters are arranged chronologically.

4) The questions are often recast, to clarify the meaning, and to provoke thought.

5) Where differences of opinion might appear, secondary arguments have been presented as well. These are presented along with the original questions.

6) Many of the minor persons, mentioned in the first edition were omitted in the second, but they have been included again here. Therefore the study will take longer than a year.

7) An addendum to lesson 22 has been added to give researched notes to students and teachers because of the controversial nature of some of the questions.

This revision is a mite of gratitude for the gracious and extensive reception of previous editions. Its growth in popularity demanded the best the author could give. No efforts have been spared to make it the best. It is intentionally different from any other course of study and fills a niche in the walls of Bible Study, not occupied by any other outline, used by the churches of the Lord Jesus Christ. It should give the users an insight to the Bible never before realized. It is therefore sent forth with a prayerful hope that both the teacher and student will be richly blessed in their quest for His “unsearchable riches.”

SUGGESTIONS FOR TEACHERS

1) Prepare your lesson well. It will add interest and zest to the class, and it will gain the confidence and respect of the pupils.

2) Have a certain time to begin and close the lesson. Nothing helps quite as much as doing things on time and with regularity.

3) Make assignments to the students of the questions starred (*); these assignments are to be related in story form. This saves time, aids in covering the lessons, and breaks the routine of the recitation.

4) With the students, memorize the periods of Bible History and the Bible Dispensations.

5) Have frequent drills on the Periods of History and of the characters studied. This will aid the memory and add life to the course.

6) Do not argue or permit arguments in the class. This is the surest way to kill interest. Permit each lady to express herself freely and pass on to the next question.

7) Do not do all the talking; this is not a lecture course. Solicit the fullest cooperation of all.

Our purpose is to identify and scrutinize the actions and character traits of each woman as well as her position in the home, family and the nation where she lived. We will also study how she carried out her duties as a servant of God or as an enemy of God. We will see how her life influenced those around her and particularly how she used that influence for good or evil.

We cannot gainsay the fact that the women who were mothers, wives, sisters or daughters to their sons, husbands or fathers not only shared their experiences, but also influenced them and others for good or evil. These women, great or lowly, should be studied in order to understand the complete Bible picture.

Individual lessons for SBW-NT (Part 1) are taken from a book by the same name, written by Coleman Overby—last printed in 1945 (now in the public domain). Because Overby’s book contains such extensive research, it has been the basis for several larger publications written by several modern day authors. However, rather than following those newer works, we feel that our time would best be spent studying the original. You will not be expected to buy anything since the book is now out of print.

My sincere hope in this lesson series is to provide more than just a cursory look at each personality in order to help us compare the information we glean with God’s will for us as Christian women. We will attempt, in every case, to compare what actually happened with what should have happened.

“Now we have received, not the spirit of the world, but the spirit which is of God; that we might know the things that are freely given to us of God. Which things also we speak, not in the words which man’s wisdom teacheth, but which the Holy Ghost teacheth; comparing spiritual things with spiritual.”

ANNA—grace (Greek form of the Hebrew name Hannah)

1. Whose daughter was she? Of what tribe (2:36)?
2. What was she (2:36)?
3. How old was she and how long was she married (2:36)?
4. How long had she been a widow (2:37)? This is a trick question.
5. What was her continuous work? She is remembered for her devotion and piety (2:37).
6. What special person was it her privilege to see (2:34, 38)?
7. What was her attitude toward this event (2:38)?
8. In what way could we compare Anna to Miriam. What were they both (2:36; Exod. 15:20)?
9. How does Anna compare to Phebe (Rom. 16:1-2).
10. From Anna, what lessons can be learned about widows?
11. Who are widows indeed (1 Tim. 5:3, 5, 9, 10)?
12. What should be the attitude of aged women toward younger women (Tit. 2:4-5)?

POINTS TO CONSIDER:

1. Some ask, “If the priesthood belonged to men, why would Anna’s services be necessary?” What was her service? Was Anna a priest or a prophetess? Was she serving men or God?
2. Since ANNA was of the tribe of Asher, what right did she have in the temple? Some have contended that from the time of Jeroboam, the apostate king, priests were appointed from all tribes (I Kings 12:1, 31) and that was why she was there. Consider the three ideas below and then tell what is wrong with the above explanation.

   a. Was she a priest(ess) or a prophetess?

   b. Could anyone prove she was in the Holy Place or the Holy of Holies?

   c. Into what part of the temple grounds were all tribes of Israel allowed to come?

3. Notice that Joseph and Mary were of the tribe of Judah. Would Anna have had the same right in the courtyard of the temple as did an Israelite from any tribe? Consider the following scriptures: 2 Chron. 26:16-21 (High priest in the Holy of Holies); Heb. 9:6-7 (Any priest in the Holy Place); Heb. 7:14-15 (Jesus of the tribe of Judah); Heb. 11:17; Exod. 28:1; Num. 18:7; Num. 3:9-10; Lev. 1:5, 8, 11. Remember: none of these people were Gentiles.

4. How does Anna seem to demonstrate that there was a lingering hope in Israel for the coming Messiah?

5. Thus far, who has honored the Christ both in Bethlehem and in Jerusalem?

6. What command of Titus did Anna fulfill (Tit. 2:3-5)?

THE TEMPLE: A Place of Worship
(Adapted from the Living Way STUDENT WORKBOOK)

Matthew 21:12-17; Mark 11:15-19; Luke 19:45-48; and John 2:13-22

Many years ago, before Christ came into the world, God provided more things for people to see when they worshipped Him. Burnt offerings, priests with beautiful clothing, the Ark of the Covenant, tables of stone with the Ten Commandments written on them, and other things helped people worship God. When the time came that Israel was called out of slavery and was therefore God’s chosen people, they also had a special place of worship.

In the early years of the nation of Israel, they were traveling around in the wilderness so they needed a place of worship that could be carried from one place to another. This was the tabernacle that you study about in the Old Testament. When the Jews reached the Promised Land and got a king, David prepared and Solomon built a beautiful temple.
Solomon’s temple was planned somewhat like the tabernacle. There was an outer court divided into two parts. The upper court for the priests and other worshippers had a brass altar and a brass sea standing on four groups of three oxen each and ten lavers of brass.

The temple was twice as long, broad, and high as the tabernacle. It was built of stones and roofed and lined with cedar. The cedar of the whole house of both holy places was (1 Kings 6:21-22; 30; 2 Chr 3:7-8) overlaid with gold. The temple was divided into two rooms, the Holy Place and the Holy of Holies.

The Holy Place had candlesticks, and tables. In the Holy of Holies were the altar of incense and two cherubim with wings about seven and one-half feet long over the Ark of the Covenant. It was separated from the Holy Place by a curtain and by chains of gold and two doors of olive wood (1 Kings 6:31).

This very beautiful temple was burned by Nebuchadnezzar’s general. Under Zerubbabel the Jews erected another temple after they came back from captivity. Herod renovated the temple so completely that it was called Herod’s temple. This was the one in existence when Jesus was on earth. The Ark of the Covenant was lost when Israel went into Babylonian captivity and so was not mentioned as being in any of the temples after Solomon’s temple.

The temple was a beautiful place—the most wonderful building in Israel and probably (according to Josephus and the Roman Emperor, Valentinus’ son, Titus) in the whole world. Columns, gates, roof of cedar, floor of beautiful laid gold, precious stones (2 Chro 3:6), and fine workmanship all combined to make it truly magnificent. Over the gates from the outer court of the Gentiles was inscribed, “Beyond this point none of the uncircumcised may pass, on pain of death.”

Jesus told the woman of Samaria at the well that we are to worship in spirit and truth and not in a special place (John 4:20-24). Under Christ we do not depend on a physical building and there are only two things necessary that we see with our physical eyes. We can see people baptized and we see the emblems of the Lord’s Supper. The spiritual temple today is one of several descriptions of the life of a Christian. Paul said Christians are the temple of God (1 Corinthians 3:16). We are God’s building (1 Corinthians 3:9-14; Ephesians 2:21, 22). Jesus confused his enemies by referring to His body as a temple they would destroy and that He would raise it in three days (John 2:19, 20).

One of the first events in the life of Christ was His presentation in the temple (Luke 2:22, 39). When He was 12, He stayed in the temple when His parents started home (Luke 2:41-50). Twice He showed His zeal for God’s temple against the people who did not respect it and were using it to make money from worshipers. He drove out the cattle and overturned the tables of the money-changers (Matt 21:12: Mark 11:15).

1 Kings 6:21
21 So Solomon overlaid the house within with pure gold: and he made a partition by the chains of gold before the oracle; and he overlaid it with gold.

1 Kings 6:22

1 Kings 6:30
30 And the floor of the house he overlaid with gold, within and without.

2 Chron 3:7
7 He overlaid also the house, the beams, the posts, and the walls thereof, and the doors thereof, with gold; and graved cherubims on the walls.

2 Chron 3:8
8 And he made the most holy house, the length whereof was according to the breadth of the house, twenty cubits, and the breadth thereof twenty cubits: and he overlaid it with fine gold, amounting to six hundred talents.

I remember reading about the Gentile partition wall and the women's partition in the Antiquities book of Josephus. But as far as it being in the Bible, I am pretty sure I don't remember ever reading about it there.

According to the historian, Josephus, the Gentiles were never allowed into the temple itself. They could only go up to a certain point in the court yard. Josephus reported that when Titus Vespasian (70 A.D.) finally breached the wall and entered Jerusalem, many of the last Jewish survivors were hiding in the Temple because they didn't think any Gentile would dare go past the "Gentile" wall. (They were mistaken, of course, as Titus and his men not only swarmed into the temple, but burnt it to the ground later.) No stones were left on top of the other.

Book of Josephus describes the temple of Herod and the building of it:

The middle was much higher than the rest, and the wall of the front was adorned with beams, resting upon pillars, that were interwoven into it, and the front was all of polished stone, insomuch that its fineness, to such as had not seen it, was incredible, and to such as had seen it, was greatly amazing. Thus was the first enclosure. In the midst of which, and not far from it, was the second, to be gone up to by a few steps: this was encompassed by a stone wall for a partition, with an inscription, which forbade any foreigner to go in under pain of death.

Now this inner enclosure had on its southern and northern quarters three gates [equally] distant one from another; but on the east quarter, towards the sun-rising, there was one large gate, through which such as were pure came in, together with their wives; but the temple further inward in that gate was not allowed to the women; but still more inward was there a third [court of the] temple, where into it was not lawful for any but the priests alone to enter.

The following information is taken from Bible History online:

http://www.bible-history.com/gentile_court/start.htm

http://www.bible-history.com/gentile_court/index.htm

Court of the Gentiles (Herod’s Temple)

The central sanctuary was approached through a series of spacious outer courts, each court progressively more exclusive. The outermost was the COURT OF THE GENTILES, a huge rectangular area about 35 acres in size. It was paved with colored stones and enclosed by tall, stately columns. Visitors entered through a number of immense double and triple gates, which stood at intervals along the outer court. As its name suggests, the Court of the Gentiles was open to Gentiles as well as Jews, and it was usually crowded with people from many backgrounds and walks of life. On a typical day a visitor would encounter Jewish pilgrims from all over Palestine and the Roman Empire; merchants selling doves, young sheep and cattle for sacrifice; moneychangers converting foreign currency into Jewish shekels; Jewish scribes and rabbis discussing points of Mosaic law; and others simply passing the time of day.

At the center of the Court of the Gentiles stood a second enclosed compound, posted with signs in Greek and Latin warning: "No foreigner is allowed within the balustrades and embankment about the sanctuary. Whoever is caught will be personally responsible for his ensuing death."

It was therefore a serious accusation that was brought by the Jews of Asia Minor against Paul that he had brought Greeks into the Temple and had polluted the Holy Place (Acts 21:28)

One last thought about the temple and those who worshipped there:

Wisdom's Corner

Volume 11 number 36

Gathering the Outcasts

Under the Old Law there were some people that were not allowed to enter the Temple. Anyone with certain physical deformities could not enter. Eunuchs were not allowed in the Temple. Those who had not physically converted to Judaism and were of a foreign nation could not enter the Temple. Anyone who had become unclean by touching something dead was not allowed in the Temple. These people were allowed to have private worship to God but they could not join the congregation in the Temple. They were considered outcasts.

In Isaiah 56:8, we read, "The Lord God which gathereth the outcasts of Israel saith, Yet will I gather others to him, beside those that are gathered unto him." Earlier in the chapter God had said that the son of the stranger and the eunuch would be included in the new covenant he would bring.

When the New Covenant was instituted, any former outcast was immediately included if he obeyed God. Anyone who obeys God today can join in congregational worship. The key is that one must obey God. One must do what is necessary to enter the kingdom. Today the only outcasts are those who refuse to obey.

I am glad that God is willing to allow anyone to worship him. It does not matter what nationality, sex, physical condition, or former life one has. If a person will obey God, he can join in worship.

Study your Bible. Learn what is necessary to obey God. And if any of this is hard to understand, ask an adult to help you.

8. When the Savior was buried, what did she “mark” (Mark 15:47)?
9. Later, as she mourned, where did she sit (Matt. 27:61)?
10. Returning home, what did Mary and the others prepare (23:56)?
11. Early on Sunday morning, to where did she come and why (24:1; Mark 16:1)?
12. On the way, what problem were they discussing (Mark 16:3)?

19. After they left, Mary returned. Give her sorrowful yet glad experience (John 20:11-18).

20. How did she act on the new orders (Mark 16:10; John 20:18)?
21. How were the disciples affected by the news (Mark 16:11)?

THINGS TO CONSIDER:

1. Consider the following scriptures: John 12:1-3; John 11:18. Matt 26 speaks of Simon the leper; Luke 7 speaks of Simon the Pharisee; Luke 7:1, 11—going from Capernaum to Nain, Magdala is between the two. Where is Bethany? See maps for routes of travel and explain the relationship between these places.

2. What may be said of her financial condition (8:2-3; Matt. 27:55)?

3. Contrast her faith with that of the disciples.

4. Because of her abiding faith, what privilege was granted to her?

5. Who first broke the news of the empty tomb?

6. To whom did Christ first appear, after his resurrection (Mark 16:9)?

7. Considering Mary’s aggressiveness, she was the most like whom (Luke 10:38-42; John 11:1-6; John 12:2-8; John 20:6)?

8. Distinguish between an ordinary sinful woman and one demon-possessed. What might demons cause a person to do (Mark 16:9; Luke 8:2)? One who is sinful without a demon is able to help herself; one who is possessed of a demon is not able to control herself.

9. What lessons may the women of the church learn from Mary Magdalene’s gratitude and service?

1. What were the circumstances and where was Jesus when Jairus approached Him regarding his little daughter (Mark 3:7-12; 4:1; 5:1, 21; Luke 8:40)?

2. Who was Jairus (Mark 4:22)? What was the official dignity of his position (Mark 8:41; Mark 9:19)?

3. How did he approach Jesus (Matt. 9:18; Mark 5:22-23)?

4. What was Jairus’ request of Jesus (Mark 5:23)?

5. How old was his only daughter (Luke 8:42)?

6. In what way was this request unusual of a religious ruler of that day (Mark 1:21-27, 2:5-7, 15-16, 18, 23-24, 3:1-6; 3:22)?

7. How do we see Jairus’ love for his daughter causing him to be courageous and humble (Mark 5: 21–22)?

8. Being deeply moved, what did Jesus do (Matt. 9:19)?

9. As Jesus followed Jairus to his house, who accompanied them (Matt. 9:19; Mark 5:24)?

10. What hindered them (Mark 5:24; 25-34)?

11. Describe Jairus’ daughter at the time of his request (Luke. 8:41-42).

12. What news did Jairus receive on the way to his house (Mark 5:35; Luke 8:49)?

13. What was Jesus’ response (Mark 5:36; Luke 8:50)?

14. How do we see that the little girl was much loved (Mark 5:38-39; Luke
15. Was the little girl actually dead before Jesus arrived to heal her (Mark 9:39; Luke 8:52-55)? Compare this to John 11:1-14; Eph. 5:11-14; Matt. 27:50-52; 1 Cor. 15:12-20; Judges 15:19 (knowing - Greek #1452 “seeing”)?

16. Was Jesus referring to being physically dead or spiritually dead (Rom. 7:9-11)?

17. So from this, what can be deduced about Jairus’ little girl’s spiritual state (Mark 5: 39; Luke 8:52-55)?

PONDER THESE THINGS:

1. How are this little girl and her father examples for us today?

2. What can be said of the spiritual state of children? Can this be generalized (1 Kings 14:11-13; 2 Kings 2:23-24; Prov. 20:11; Matt. 18:4; Rom. 7:9-11)?

3. Why would Jesus have sent all the mourners besides her parents out when He began to heal the girl?

4. Why would He tell her parents not to tell anyone what was done (Matt. 13:58)?

- Her father Aristobulus was half-brother of Herod Philip I, and Herod Antipas
- She was the wife of Herod Philip I (her 1/2 uncle).
- Also wife of Herod Antipas (1/2 uncle and former brother-in-law) who was exiled in Gaul (France/Belgium) or possibly Spain.
- Also, Archelaus (Matt 2:22) is another 1/2 uncle.

SALOME

Matthew 20:20-21—Then came to him the mother of Zebedee's children with her sons, worshipping him, and desiring a certain thing of him. 21 And he said unto her, What wilt thou? She saith unto him, Grant that these my two sons may sit, the one on thy right hand, and the other on the left, in thy kingdom.

Matthew 27:56—Among which was Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James and Joses, and the mother of Zebedee's children.

Compare this with Mark 15:40.

Mark 15:40—There were also women looking on afar off: among whom was Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James the less and of Joses, and Salome;

Mark 16:1-2—And when the sabbath was past, Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James, and Salome, had bought sweet spices, that they might come and anoint him. 2 And very early in the morning the first day of the week, they came unto the sepulchre at the rising of the sun.

1. To whom was she married (Mark 15:40; Mark 16:1; Matt. 27:56)?

2. Who were their well-known sons (Matt. 4:21)?

3. What was the occupation of her husband and sons (Matt. 4:18, 21)?
